of the 21st a conversation said to have taken place between General W. G. Hearding and General Jackson about the duel fought by Jackson with Mr. Dickinson. Will you please be kind enough to give me the name of the author and his post-office, as I would like to write to him.

Mr. Dickinson was a great-uncle of mine. I don't think that he was ever married, and could not have had a father-in-law. I am, yours, with respect,

My Dear Friend Gunning: * * * Admitting the theory of evolution to be true, I do not see that it need disturb the feelings or faith of the religious world. * * No deductions of science can change the facts of sin and holiness. We know that something calls upon us to be pure, true, merciful, and just-that something holds us to the great idea of duty. This to me is God speaking directly to me, as He does to all; and because He asks me to be good I know that He is good. Here is a rock with which geology has nothing to do. Thy friend, John G. The Tablet thus concludes an article or St. Patrick's Day: "There are so many historic associations connected with the name of St. Patrick-the Druid in his forest sanctuary, the patrician in his marble ball, and the tiaraed hierophant in his Roman basilica-that we trust it will be celebrated this year, as it generally is, in a manner commensurate with the national dignity, in splendor and decorum, order and magnificence, that no expense will be spared to render it an object of respect to all and sympathy to millions."

Because the Kansas City Times called the representatives who voted for a resolution of sympathy for Wells and Anderson, of the Louisiana Returning Board, "a pack of fools," the Kansas Legislature, by a FRANK D. HILL. unanimous vote, expelled all its correspondents from the privileges of the floor and galleries.

"I never can enjoy poetry when I'm cook-in'," said an old lady; "but when I step in','' said an old lady; "but when I step out to feed the hogs, and h'ist myself on the fence and throw my soul into a few lines of 'Cap'n Jinks,' it does seem as if this airth was made to live on, after all."

The comparative antiquity of the different secret societies has long been a subject of gas, &c. discussion, but Spilkins thinks he has satisfactorily solved the question by the discovery that the mythological god of sleep, Somnus, was a nod-fellow.

There is one thing about American illustrated newspapers. In each No. is a long and lucid explanation of the pictures, so that one can generally tell which is meant for a house and which for a man.-Free situated as above. It was built a few years ago, is of brick and mastic with brown—tone trimmings, and brick and mastic with brown-tone trimmings, and has ten rooms, besides bath-room, basement, kitchen, servants' rooms; fine stable, carriage-house, &c., &c. In addition to these, six other rooms could be made at a small cost in the unper story.

All of the chambers have stationary marble washstands, supplied with hot and cold water, and there are speaking-tubes throughout the house.

Fine taste and good judgment, aided by the best mechanical skill, and sustained by ample means, were freely used in planning and constructing the improvements, and are amply shown in their admirable arrangements and thorough finish in every detail, so that it may be well said that in all that constitutes a strictly first-class residence this property is not excelled by any other in the city.

The lot fronts 32 feet and runs back 148 feet to an alley. The lot from 52 leve and talk and alley.

TERMS: Will be very liberal and will be announced at the time of sale.

The house will be open for examination on Thursday, 8th March, from 11 A. M. to 5 P. M., and on Friday, 9th, from 11 A. M. mutil the sale is over.

R. We have made a chemical examination of DAVID F. CLEMMER'S MOUNTAIN RYE WHISKEY, using for the purpose samples selected by ourselves from ten harrels belonging to lots received by Messrs. George A. Hondley & Co. at different times, and of ages varying from one to four teen months. We have subjected this whiskey to the most searching tests. It has stood them all perfectly, nothing of a deleterious nature ochas found in it. It can therefore be confidently recommended for its purity and excellence to those who use whiskey as a beverage, while for medicinal purposes it is all that can be desired.
